COST OF LIVING STILL HIGH TO CONSUMERS

Retail Prices Have Not Declined in Proportion to Wholesale Prices--High Financiers Realizing Value of Selling Securities to Small Investors.

(By PRESTON C. ADAMS.)
Special to The Telegram.

New York, April 3.—The new plan of High Finance to deal more openly with the public and apparently at least to let the prospective investor know something of what are really the facts is bearing fruit in an increased number of small purchasers of securities for investment.

It is coming to be recognized by our captains of industry that it is the man who buys stocks or bonds for investment and puts them away, rather than the speculator playing the market for a turn who makes a safe, sound market for securities.

The cultivation of small investors is an art only beginning to be understood and practiced in the United States. The notable achievements in this direction by France are so often cited that they need not be enlarged upon. Staid Britain is now giving the subject serious study, and the advisability of making consols available in very small denominations may be recognized before long by the Government. The desirability of multiplying the number of investors is greater in the United States than in any other country because of our essentially democratic system of government, which enables public opinion to be quickly written into the statute books. Unfortunately, capital in the past did not always act with due consideration for the public welfare, and in revenge harrassing legislation has been passed alike by the Federal Government and many of the States. Let a citizen own an interest in a corporation and he is much less likely to advocate hostile measures. The "Havenots" are always more radical than the "Haves." Consequently by extending the number of the latter the result makes for moderation in agitation for legislation aimed at business organizations. All this is being gradually realized by our financiers.

Tactics that were sometimes pursued by High Finance in the olden days are no longer regarded as respectable.

An examination of the March report of the Department of Agriculture discloses the fact that the prices of leading farm products, such as wheat, corn, oats, live hogs, butter, cheese and eggs have within a year declined from 15 to 40 per cent. The average decreases on the above articles is about 30 per cent.

The question that naturally arises is, has the benefit of this decline of 30 per cent. in staple products reached the consumer? And if not, why not? The following table of leading grocery articles, giving the highest prices during 1910 in comparison with the prices of the same articles March 1, 1911, shows that while the consumer is getting more for a dollar now than he did a year ago, he is only getting the benefit of, at most, 20 per cent. decline in retail prices:

Retail Prices.
	High.	Mar.
	1910	'11	Decline
Lard	$.20	$.16	.04%
Oatmeal	.05	.03½	.01½
Flour	$.75	7.00	.50
Bacon	.27	.23	.04
Ham	.26	.24	.02
Butter	.42	.32	.10
Eggs	.50	.25	.25
Cheese	.21	.19	.02
Lard	.20	.16	.04

It will be noticed that while wheat has declined about 38 per cent., the retail grocer has only lowered his price of flour 6 1-2 per cent. Corn and live hogs have yielded to a drop of 31 per cent respectively, but the retail price of lard, bacon and ham has responded in the decline to less than 15 per cent, while the prices of canned meats and cereals in packages have not varied at all. Butter, eggs and cheese are the only food products the retail prices of which have declined in proportion to the wholesale price. But on the average the retail price of table necessities has not yet reached the proportionate level of wholesale prices. It is lagging about 10 per cent behind, and is responsible, to a great extent, for the high cost of living which is still a fact.

A number of reasons are advanced for the tardiness of the retail grocer in lowering prices to the consumer in proportion as the market declines. He is reluctant, it is said, to sell stock on hand at a lower price which he may have bought on a high market. Competition with him is not as keen as with the jobber, and therefore he is not obliged to reduce prices. And, lastly, the consumer is not sufficiently informed as to the decline in prices, nor sufficiently interested, nor courageous, nor skilled enough in making a good bargain. The consumer, it is argued, is therefore more or less at the grocer's mercy.

The retail grocer, however, resents the intimation that he is taking advantage of his customers. Prices he says, are lower now than they have been for years, and they are as low as he can

NEWS OF NORTH STATE CAPITAL

Federal Court Session—Negro Murderer Will Pay the Penalty.

Special to The Telegram.

Raleigh, N. C., April 3.—A special session of the Federal court here today Judge Connor presiding, District Attorney Seawell lodged complaint against the Edenton Peanut Company of Edenton for the violation of the Federal Pure Food Act through the adulteration of shelled peanuts shipped to Philadelphia. The defendant is allowed time to answer the indictment. There was also a hearing in the complaint lodged some weeks ago against the Norfolk & Southern Railway Company for failure to open the draw of the Beaufort-Morehead City bridge promptly. The occasion was the approach of the government launch Olive. The man whose duty it was to open the draw seems to have been working in a blacksmith shop near and failed to give prompt attention to the signal. Unfortunately for him and the railroad company it was a government tug and the indictment followed. Judge Connor suspended judgment on the payment of the costs.

Two Murders To Pay Penalty.

For the electrocution of Norman Lewis, the murderer of Chief of Police Stallings of Spring Hope Governor Kitchen names May 12. This action is on a certificate from the supreme court showing that the appeal by the prisoner has resulted in affirmation. The killing was September 18, 1910, the chief of police having gone to Lewis' house with a warrant for his arrest. Lewis shot Stallings down after the officer had given him time to finish dressing instead of requiring immediate surrender and entering on his guard. When the negro came out he was armed and shot Stallings down and fled. Several days were spent in sensational search for the negro.

Lewis West dies May 5th for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Munford of Wilson. The date of his execution conflicted with that of Lewis and the latter will be electrocuted on May 12th, in consequence.

Supreme Court Hearings.

Tuesday morning the supreme court will call appeals from the Ninth district for argument, the district comprising Durham, Guilford, Granville, Alamance, Orange and Person counties. The appeals follow: State vs. Webb, Houston vs. Tractor Co.; Briggs vs. Insurance Co., Clements vs. Insurance Co., Wiggins vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway, Mararity vs. Tractor Co., Fann vs. Railroad, Denny vs. City of Burlington, Wilson vs. Insurance Co., Hockaday vs. Lawrence, McKinney vs. Railroad Co.

Charters Granted.

The Piedmont Traction Co., J. B. Duke, president, Charlotte, filed with the secretary of state today an amendment to its charter that increases the capital of this corporation from $100,000 to $1,500,000.

There is a charter granted the Pollockville Spoke and Handle Co., Pollockville, capital $25,000, by C. E. Foy and others, who subscribe as initial capital $3,500.

Pipe Organ For Peace Institute.

Peace Institute, this city, is raising a fund for a fine pipe organ to be set up in the chapel of this famous old college for women. Prof. Brawley, Miss Dumais and Miss Paulson of the music faculty go to Wilmington tomorrow to give a concert under the auspices of the alumni association for the benefit of this fund.

Judge Adams' Successor.

There is much speculation here as to the probable selection by Governor Kitchen of a successor to Judge Joseph S. Adams, of Asheville, as superior court judge from the Fifteenth district, who died Sunday at Warrenton where he held court last week. In 1908 when Judge Fred Moore, of this district died, Governor Glenn appointed Hon. J. D. Murphy as his successor to serve until the fall elections. At that time Judge Adams was an active candidate for the

"PRE-ARRANGED WHITEWASH"

Pinchot and Ballinger Investigation so Called by Sen. Poindexter.

By Publishers' Press.

Spokane, Washington, April 3.—Senator Poindexter tonight predicted that an investigation of the Department of the Interior would be ordered during the special session of Congress. Senator Poindexter declared that the recent Pinchot and Ballinger investigation was nothing more or less than a "pre-arranged whitewash."

NEVADA'S DIVORCE LAWS DENOUNCED BY COL. ROOSEVELT

By Publishers' Press.

Reno, Nev., April 3.—In a stirring speech delivered from the court house steps this afternoon before a crowd of 100,000 Col. Roosevelt denounced the lax divorce laws now prevailing in the state and urged that Reno, which is commonly known as the home of easy divorce, banish from her limits all divorce seeking easterners that come here.

Bingham Went Down Before Mighty Men of Whitsett

Whitsett, April 3.—Whitsett Institute defeated Bingham School this afternoon in an exciting game of ball. Both teams put up a very fine game, greatly enjoyed by a large crowd. The field work of the two teams was about balanced but Whitsett's sensational pitcher, Ray, kept Bingham puzzled throughout the whole game.

The score:
Bingham ..... 000 300 000—3
Whitsett ..... 200 000 12x—5
Batteries—Bingham, Jordan and Smith. Whitsett, Ray and Young.
Struck out by Ray, fifteen; Jordan, four. Hits, Bingham, 5; Whitsett, 8. Errors, Bingham 5, Whitsett 4.
For Whitsett Floyd, Greeson and Carroll scored 3 baggers and Ferry Greeson one 2 bagger. Time, one hour and forty-five minutes. Umpire, Russell.
These teams will meet again at Mebane April 22.

IN WASHINGTON DOVE OF PEACE IS FAVORITE BIRD

By Publishers' Press.

Washington City, April 3.—An arbitration treaty between the United States, Great Britain, Japan and France is now assured, according to information given out at the White House. Andrew Carnegie was among the distinguished advocates of peace in the city today and is throwing the weight of his influence in the scale in favor of the arbitration treaty.

appointment and failing in this, his friends carried the fight into the judicial district convention with the result that Adams won the nomination from Judge Murphy. Now the probability is being discussed of Governor Kitchen giving the commission for the unexpired term of Judge Adams to Judge Murphy. The appointment will have to be made from among lawyers in the Fifteenth district composed of the counties of Buncombe, Madison and Transylvania counties. It is pointed out that all the leading lawyers who would make good judicial timber were Craig men in the memorable Kitchen-Craig fight for the governorship in the State Democratic convention at Charlotte three years ago.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS NAMES MANN AS MINORITY LEADER

Selection of Members Left With Leader Against Wishes of Many Insurgents--Cannon Nominates Mann--Harmony Among Democrats--N. C. Appointments.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington, April 3.—The Republican members of the House in caucus tonight, eighteen insurgents being absent, unanimously nominated James Mann, of Illinois, as speaker, this meaning that Mann will be the minority leader during the present Congress. The nomination was made by ex-Speaker Joe Cannon, the "Czar" stating in a humorous speech that Mann was the man upon whom he would be delighted to see his mantle fall. No other name was offered.

The caucus decided to leave the selection of the minority members of the several committees with the minority leader, voting down the plan to have a committee to name the members, favored by many insurgents. The old officers were re-nominated, including an indorsement of the renomination of Chaplain Couden, previously made by the Democrats.

Currier presided over the caucus and Nathan E. Kendall was unanimously chosen as secretary, being greeted with applause as he took his seat.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington City, April 3.—When the Republican insurgents of the House went into conference late this afternoon in the office of Congressman Lenroot of Wisconsin, to map out the course to be pursued by the faction in tonight's Republican caucus, it was apparent that a contest would be waged between the insurgents and regulars when the attempt to organize is made.

There seemed to be no objection to Congressman Mann of Illinois for the position of minority leader, but the contest will come over the resolution to allow the minority leader to name the Republican members of committees. Many Republican members openly threatened to bolt the caucus on this and other issues unless they got what they demanded in the nature of changes and concessions.

Democratic Harmony Is a Fact.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington City, April 3.—On the eve of the opening of the Sixty-second Congress all is lovely in the Democratic camp. All the talk about Democrats not being able to get together has been knocked sky high. Apparently, there is not a difference worth mentioning among the leaders and not a cloud on the Democratic horizon.

William J. Bryan spent the day here and was in conference with Democratic leaders, among whom was Speaker Champ Clark.

Committee Assignments to North Carolinians.

Washington City, April 3.—These committee assignments have been given to North Carolinians:

Edwin Yates Webb, judiciary and patents; Robert N. Page, appropriations; Charles M. Stedman, foreign affairs, election of President, Vice-President and Representatives in Congress; John H. Small, rivers and harbors and census; Edward W. Pou, chairman committee on claims, rules; Claude Kitchen, ways and means; James M. Gudger, Indian affairs, public buildings and grounds; Hannibal L. Godwin, chairman reform of civil service and public lands; Robert L. Doughton, banking and currency, expenditure in department of agriculture; James M. Faison, merchant marine and fisheries, expenditure in the navy department.

Some of the choicest plums in the shape of, committee assignments fell to North Carolina in the organization of the new Democratic House. In addition to having two chairmanships, the State is represented on what is now known as the "big five," judiciary, ways and means, rivers and harbors, appropriations and rules.

Yates Webb will hold membership on the committee on the judiciary, which handles all proposed laws affecting the legal administration of the government, and is considered one of the most important committees of the House.

Robert N. Page will be a member of the appropriations committee. This committee apportions vast sums of money annually expended by the government.

Anna Gould's Son Hereditary Member of Prussian Lords

By Publishers' Press.

Berlin, April 3.—Prince Helie De Sagan, husband of Mme. Anna Gould, today brought suit at Sagan in order to have his son, born July 16, 1909, in Le Maras, France, invested with vast family possessions in Prussia. If the Prince wins his suit Anna Gould's son will become a hereditary member of the House of Lords at Prussia.

COURT HOUSE ANNEX CONTRACT

Let Yesterday by Commissioners---J. T. Hunt & Co. Got Contract at $5,829---Special School Tax Election for Winding Hill District---Boren Elected Chairman.

The question of the new county court house was not discussed by the commissioners at their regular monthly meeting yesterday, being set for this afternoon at 2 o'clock when the matter will be definitely decided.

The commissioners met yesterday at 10 o'clock and organized by electing W. C. Boren as chairman. John McIntosh and Yancy C. Rich were excused from the payment of poll tax because of their infirmities.

It was decided to set aside the sum of $1,340.77 and accumulated interest for the sinking fund of the county, also the loan of $3,000 heretofore made to A. F. Brooks.

The commissioners and county board of education met in joint session in the afternoon and decided on the new annex to be used by the county and board of education. The bids were opened, there being five bidders. J. T. Hunt & Co. were the lowest bidders, their figures being $5,829. The other bidders were Holladay & Crouse, S. E. Hanner, J. C. Morris and Central Carolina Construction Company. W. C. Tucker and A. L. Rankin were appointed as a committee to supervise the building.

On petition from a number of citizens the board ordered a special school tax election for the Winding Hill district, which is formed under recent act of the legislature out of portions of Guilford, Rockingham and Stokes counties. The election is to be on May 16, Geo. W. Fulp being appointed as registrar and Archie Dillon and Walter Nelson judges of election. The election will provide for a special tax of 30 cents on the $100 valuation and 90 cents on each poll.

CRIMINAL TERM SUPERIOR COURT

Opened Monday With Judge Daniels Presiding--Able Charge to Jury--Speaks Case Set for Hearing Thursday--Court Got Down to Business Yesterday.

The regular April term of Guilford Criminal court convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Judge E. A. Daniels, presiding. The first work was the selection of the grand jury, the following being selected: A. E. Alexander, foreman; C. T. Cummings, S. H. Pillow, J. A. Bevil, Thos. Rayle, M. E. Furrell, N. T. Pegram, W. L. Layton, W. M. Donnell, J. D. Coley, H. C. Kearns, D. F. Bennett, Clark Kirkman, Z. P. Campbell, G. C. Burton, W. E. Hockett, D. B. Smith.

The charge of Judge Daniels was declared by many attorneys to have been the most able charge ever delivered in the court house. The judge discussed the various sections of the law regarding criminal offenses and pointed out the fact that the work of the grand jury is the most important work of any of the county officers; that unless the members of that body do their full duty the entire county will in time suffer. His Honor urged the jury to make a thorough investigation into the existing conditions of the county's affairs and to return presentments against anyone who had in their opinion violated the law.

Jail breaking was discussed and Judge Daniels charged the grand jury to make a thorough investigation into the jail breaking in this county a few nights ago. He told the jury that if any of the county officials were in the least to blame for the escape of the prisoners to make presentments against them. His Honor also discussed the child labor law and instructed the grand jury to investigate conditions in this city and ascertain if the management of the factories

H. G. BRAXTON, - Business Manager.

The Telegram's Phone is No. 59.

The Telegram is entered at the Post-office in Greensboro, North Carolina, for transmission through the mails as Second Class Matter.

It has again been shown that Raleigh people can get together on any question except a political question.

The business men of Charleston who are seeing the country will see a live town when they are shown Greensboro.

Congressman Lamb of Virginia is 71 years of age. It would seem that Lamb is old enough to be regarded as a sheep.

The "progressive" Democrats have been able to do some business in New York. Senator O'Gorman acknowledges that he belongs to that wing of the party.

It is about time to take up the anti-fly crusade again. The fight on the flies is one that has to be waged continuously, but it should be especially vigorous during the spring and summer.

The New Bern Journal has entered the thirtieth year of its publication as a daily. The Journal was published for four years as a weekly before being changed to a daily, consequently it is entering into its thirty-fourth year.

Raleigh carried the Y. M. C. A. movement to a magnificently successful conclusion, and to crown the occasion of rejoicing at the end of the campaign the good news from Greensboro was received. Greensboro knows exactly how to do the right thing at the psychological moment.

The Greenville Daily Piedmont claims to tell the truth about circulation, and says that the newspaper circulation liar has gone out of business in most of the newspaper offices of the country. Both statements are no doubt true. The Piedmont has the appearance of being a newspaper with a healthy circulation, and that sort of paper can always afford to tell the truth about circulation. It is a fact, however, that the circulation liar still holds his job on a few papers, but the number is steadily growing smaller and the day is probably not far distant when every newspaper in the land will stand ready at all times to furnish circulation statements about the truth of which there can be no question.

SENATOR O'GORMAN.

Charles F. Murphy and Tammany Hall are claiming a victory in the election of Judge James A. O'Gorman as United States senator in New York; and, on the other hand, the anti-Murphy and anti-Tammany Democrats are claiming a victory for their forces. Senator O'Gorman is a member of the Tammany organization, but it is claimed by the insurgent Democrats that the tie which binds him to the Tiger is weak and that he has never, as far as the public has been able to judge, been controlled in his official career in the smallest degree by his Tammany affiliation. The claims of the insurgent are probably correct, as Senator O'Gorman has made it clear in a statement since his election that he is a progressive Democrat and that his attitude is one of considerable independence in the matter of his relations to party bosses. The New York World, an anti-Tammany newspaper and one which fought the proposed election of Sheehan from start to finish of the senatorial contest, takes the view that Tammany lost out completely by the election of O'Gorman and that the organization is simply making the most of the fact that the Senator is a member as a salve to its wounds. The World says:

"James A. O'Gorman is United States Senator not by grace of Charles F. Murphy, not by grace of Tammany Hall, not by grace of Wall street, but by grace of the independent Democracy of New York."

"This independent Democracy alone made his election possible. It compelled the Boss to abandon William F. Sheehan. It blocked the Murphy scheme to make Daniel F. Cohan Senator. It stood firmly against all the Murphy and Ryan candidates that were mysteriously paraded out of secret conferences. It finally drove Murphy to go to the Supreme Bench and forced him to take one of its strongest and ablest Judges, the kind of candidate that the Boss would never have assented to in any other circumstances."

"It is true that Senator O'Gorman is a member of Tammany Hall, but that fact has never influenced his course as a Judge and it should never influence his course as a Senator.

"It is his high privilege to represent Democratic principles and policies. There are no spoils of office to embarrass him. The circumstances of his election leave him with no friends to reward and no enemies to punish. He is a free man unless he chooses to shackle himself, and he can make himself a tremendous force in the rehabilitation of the Democratic party. He can be more than a State leader; he can be one of the National leaders. The very fact of his being a Senator from New York gives him a political prestige that is commanded by no Senator from another State."

"The World in this contest has had no candidate of its own. It has battled only for the election of a free Senator of conscience and character against boss domination. It accepts Senator O'Gorman as a satisfactory compromise, without regard to any of its own preferences."

FARM DEMONSTRATOR'S DEATH GREAT LOSS TO THE SOUTH.

The death of Dr. S. A. Knapp, one of the experts of the United States Department of Agriculture, in Washington City Sunday, is a distinct loss to the agricultural development of the South. Dr. Knapp was in charge of the government's farm demonstration work, and through this department was accomplishing much for the encouragement and instruction of Southern farmers a long line of diversified farming, stock-raising and dairying. Dr. Knapp was thoroughly versed in all the theories of agriculture, but he was not a "book farmer." He was a practical farmer, and on the results he secured in actual demonstrations and in producing crops is founded the great agricultural demonstration movement, which is constantly being expanded and is growing more powerful in aid of the farmers and more helpful to them year by year.

The farm demonstration work is the greatest help imaginable to diversified farming and to agricultural development in the South. It is probably the greatest plan for helping the country people of this section which the government has ever undertaken, and in this respect stands ahead of the rural delivery of mail, which has been in its practical workings the most helpful thing done for the rural districts by the government with the exception of the farm demonstration work. The farm demonstration campaign was the work nearest Dr. Knapp's heart. He superintended it with consummate skill, and the energy and enthusiasm with which he prosecuted it through speeches and through his writings were largely responsible for the success which has attended the movement. Dr. Knapp was fully aware of the immense possibilities of the agricultural South and he was constantly seeking to help Southern farmers to a clearer knowledge of these possibilities and to encourage them in the adoption of better methods of cultivation and to arouse their enthusiasm for diversified farming and to help them to break away from one crop ideas.

Dr. Knapp was not a Southerner and his work as an expert of the Agricultural Department was not sectional, but he always evidenced particular interest in the South, doubtless realizing that the agricultural promise of this section is greater than that of any other section of the United States and that the South is destined to become the wealthiest agricultural region on the globe. His efforts to teach the cotton farmers the value of rotation and of diversified farming were eminently successful, and his farm demonstration campaign and methods have been largely responsible for the increased cultivation of grain crops in the cotton States and for the great yields of corn produced in these States during the past two or three years.

Dr. Knapp was deeply interested in rice cultivation in the South and introduced the improved Japanese rice into this country. He was one of the leaders of the fight against the cotton boll weevil and his efforts in this campaign, as in many others, produced most effective results. In recent years his work had been mainly the directing of the farm demonstration campaign in the South.

Dr. Seaman Asahel Knapp was born in Essex county, New York, December 16, 1833. He graduated from Union College, N. Y., in 1856. He taught Greek and mathematics in Fort Edward Collegiate Institute and was later associated in the management of that institution. Later on he was connected with Ripley Female College of Vermont and the Iowa State College for the Blind, as its president. Afterward the associated himself with the faculty of the Iowa State Agricultural College and later was made president of the college. In 1898 he was appointed to an important post in the Department of Agriculture and the same year visited Japan, China and the Philippines to report on agricultural conditions in the islands, returning early in 1899.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA EDITORS ARE SAYING.

Three Candidates For the United States Senate.

Some of the papers are talking of a new party which our dear friend, Hon. E. J. Justice, of Greensboro, proposes to organize, bringing together the Republicans of the La-Follette and Cummings stripe and the element of Democrats called "progressives." It is proposed to work out a new element in politics in this State and band them together, we assume, on the issues of "recall, initiative and the referendum," and it is intimated that the new element in politics will have a candidate in the running for the United States Senate and other offices. The suggestion has caused at least one newspaper correspondent at Washington to infer that there will be a three cornered Senatorial fight year after next, and he says that Simmons will be the candidate of the conservative crowd; perhaps Mr. Justice will be in the running as a progressive, and that Governor Kitchin will be the middle man—we do not recall just what kind of a Democrat he is to be called. All of which meets our approval, and we think is very clever and proper.

Governor Kitchin is just "conservative" enough to stand squarely on the platform of his party, and as a Representative in Congress from the Fifth district his every vote was cast in the interest of "the people," and his administration as Governor of the State has been along "progressive" lines which make him an acceptable candidate to both the "conservatives" and "progressives" as well as to the plain old Democrats who have thought for years that the Democratic party stood for good government, and fair and exact justice to all, and special privileges to none, and who still maintain that they only desire a representative in the Senate who will vote Democratic on all questions, and who stands squarely on his party's platform, with no explanations to make, just as William Walton Kitchin has ever done.

So go on with the music and let the dance proceed. Kitchin will succeed Mr. Simmons in the United States Senate, and he will do it on the old-time issues which have made Democracy immortal!—Reidsville Review.

A Warm Time.

There is going to be a warm fight in North Carolina next year unless all signs fail. Governor Kitchin is getting ready to make the record of his life. A seat in the Senate is the very apple of his eye. That is why he turned loose his job in the House and made the race for Governor. He did not care particularly about being Governor of North Carolina except that it furnished a stepping stone to the Senate. He is a man of the first order of ability, and has never known defeat. The way he is going to make the fur fly will be a caution.

But he will meet a foreman worthy of his steel. F. M. Simmons is an organizer and the planner of a campaign has few equals in the United States. Talk about politicians. Simmons can give lessons to the best of them. He knows North Carolina. He has studied the people harder than a schoolboy ever studied Latin for a prize. He has foresight, hindsight, and every other kind of sight. He can see and hear while he is asleep. Nobody in our public life or out of it is more alert, more vigorous or more energetic than F. M. Simmons.

It looks to us like Mr. Simmons has made some mistakes of late. A great many of his friends are grieved because he helped to foist Lorimer on the Senate, and because he strenuously opposes reciprocity and threatens to fight like fury when the question comes before Congress next month.

But Mr. Simmons is honest in what he has done and the people hold no grudges against an honest man. He is not over fond of Mr. Kitchin, to begin with, and he does like his job in Washington, and when the fight begins in earnest you are going to see him put up the prettiest scrap you ever saw in your life. We believe Mr. Aycock can beat either or both of these men, but Mr. Aycock is not going to run unless he is forced out; so those who are expecting the finest clash of political arms that has been seen in many a year will not be disappointed.—Thomasville Davidsonian.

ANAEMIA AND WEAKNESS

Constantly Being Cured by Vinol—An Interesting Case Reported.

Greensboro N. C.—"I would not take a thousand dollars for the good Vinol has done me."

"I was told that cod liver oil was the medicine I needed for poor blood and my weakened condition. I could not take the greasy mixture, but when my druggist explained to me that Vinol contained all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, without the grease, and tonic iron added, I made up my mind that Vinol was the medicine for me."

"I tried it, and today am strong and well.—Mrs. J. T. Snider." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

Vinol is a specific for impure, impoverished blood and it is the greatest tonic we know of.

We sell Vinol always with the understanding that if the purchaser is not satisfied with the result it gives we will cheerfully refund his money. That seems fair. Fariss-Klutz Drug Company, Greensboro, N. C.

Smith (to member of vested choir)—I hear you've got a new tenor in the choir. What kind of a voice has he? Good?

Jones—Good? I should say so! It's so good none of the other tenors will speak to him.—Life.

A Reliable Medicine—Not A Narcotic

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe., Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Howard Gardner.

A Shock.

She—Did you advertise my lost pool, Henry?

He—N-no, I didn't, my dear. Don't you think $5 reward is too much to offer?

—SheNo, I don't. But you needn't bother. I bought another just like him this morning for $50.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Midnight In The Ozarks

and yet sleepless Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, its the best known remedy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

On the Other Foot.

"It is said that you gave money to the legislature."

"Another untruth!" replied the man who was being investigated. "The legislature took it away from me."—Washington Star.

Never Out of Work.

The busiest little things ever made are Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, languor into energy, brain-fag into mental power; curing Constipation, Headache, Chills, Dyspepsia, Malaria. Only 25c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Be Sure It Is A Cable

Unscrupulous piano salesmen and tuners of this section have not the ability or enough of the confidence of the public to dissatisfy a Cable owner. We are glad to have salesmen or tuners open Cable pianos and show the customer any defects of the instrument. It is scientifically constructed and any purchaser will see that it is a piano built to last a lifetime.

We have never had any complaints from a purchaser of a Cable piano that they had found broken strings or glue that the manufacturer had left in the piano; neither do we find tacks, as the Cable action is not tacked together. The unscrupulous piano men of this section have never been able to dissatisfy the owner of a Cable piano.

A Popular Pastime.

Little Ethel was prattling in her aimless way, and sister Maude was naturally quite unsuspicious.

"Pa," said Ethel, "do you remember the trip we made to grandma's last week?"

"Yes," replied the father, absent-mindedly.

"In the trolley?" persisted little Ethel.

"Yes."

Sister Maude yawned. She had been up later than usual the previous evening, and the evidence of her weariness could not be suppressed.

"Do you remember," continued little Ethel, "what the conductor said?"

"Yes," answered the father.

"He said," asserted little Ethel, "that if you didn't want to pay for me you'd have to take me in your lap and let someone else have my seat."

"I remember," said the father, "What of it?"

"Oh, nothing much," replied little Ethel. "Only I think sister Maude and that young man who's going to be my new brother were playing trolley when I—"

"Ethel," sharply broke in sister Maude, who had aroused herself, "go to bed at once!"

EVEN CURES ULCERS.

Remarkable Results From Eczema Remedy That Costs Almost Nothing.

No matter how bad a sore or ulcer afflicts you, Hokara, the pure skin food, will cure it. In fact, if it doesn't cure, the purchase price will be refunded.

Howard Gardner, the local agent for Hokara, who has sold hundreds of packages the last few weeks, says he has yet to find any form of wound or disease affecting the skin that Hokara does not heal, and its relief is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it.

Howard Gardner is selling a liberal jar of Hokara at the low price of 25c.

"How are you so sure that we're going to have warm weather from now on?"

"Well, I've been trying to make the furnace burn right all winter, and I finally succeeded this morning,"—Tolledo Blade.

TESTIMONIAL.

I wish to state for the benefit of anyone suffering from eczema, that I had eczema on my hand for some time and could find nothing that would cure it until I used Hokara. One 25c jar entirely cured me. Wm. Nichols, 621 1-2 Central Ave., Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

A Wonderful Feat.

The solemnity of a recent meeting was somewhat disturbed when the eloquent young theologian pictured in glowing words the selfishness of men who spent their evenings at the club, leaving their wives in loneliness at home.

"Think, my hearers," said he, "of a poor, neglected wife, all alone in the great dreary house, rocking the cradle of her sleeping babe with one foot and wiping away her tears with the other."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

TWO BEAUTIFUL HOMES AT AUCTION.

Whitsett is a beautiful and flourishing town in eastern Guilford, with a large boarding school, Whitsett Institute, with 250 students yearly. There are three churches, two good stores, live, local and long distance telephones, etc. There are numbers of handsome and elegant homes in the place, and the town is growing rapidly. It is surrounded by a fine country with good macadam roads. No more progressive or beautiful place need be wanted for a delightful home.

Here's an opportunity for some one. On next TUESDAY, APRIL 4th, at 2 p. m., I will sell at public auction at Whitsett, Lacey Summers' handsome residence, with 1 1-4 acre lot. House contains seven rooms, and is one of the prettiest home places in the village.

I will also sell at the same time and place, D. E. Knight's commodious nine room residence, with an acre lot. Both places have the finest water and the best varieties of fruit and shade trees, which cannot be excelled anywhere. If you want a nice home in a thriving town where you can educate your children at the best school, here's your chance to get one at a bargain. Information of Priceless Value to Every Greensboro Citizen.

How to act in an emergency, is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statements of nearby residents who have been permanently cured?

C. B. Ellis, Front St., Burlington, N. C., says: "I have no hesitation in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills are a reliable kidney medicine, and one that lives up to all the claims made for it. When I was suffering from an attack of kidney complaint, I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and after using them, the pain disappeared. I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and I still think highly of them. I never lose an opportunity to recommend this remedy."

(By John Watson Whyte.)
I heard a man say the other day: "I put myself out, now, only to oblige a pretty woman, an old woman, or a woman with a baby." And that was a shameful confession for any man to make.

A few years ago courtesy to anything in petticoats was an art and a pleasure. It is no longer. It is now an obligation, given very grudgingly.

And yet this man preached a whole gospel in the few words he said: The attitude between the sexes who meet daily on life's highway is becoming strained. Quite unconsciously man is getting callous.

The male clerk class has taken the standpoint toward his working sister, that the factory hands have observed for years—toleration. Woman crowds his office, his car and his train. She has edged him out from many of his comforts.

It is greatly to her credit that she has been able to make new places for herself in the commercial world. At the same time she must take the fight fairly. What she is gaining now for her own support her possible husband is losing. That is clear.

Any wise man, you would think would get it into his head that a woman with business training would make the best wife and housekeeper, but there are few wise men, and so many girls that like their independence, that the marriage market is getting duller and duller.

But no decent-minded man can view this growing neglect of courtesy to women with anything but regret. If he has any sense at all he must realize that every time his wife or daughter or mother comes to town, or even ventures away from home, she has to practically fight her way in a crowd of hustling, unconcerned people with only by some odd chance a kindly hand to help her.

That isn't pleasant to think about, is it?
I don't want to enter into the right or wrong of a big political discussion, but I do think that any man with the slightest atom of sympathy or sentiment in his nature, any man who has married and revelled in the charm and delight of a woman, but must, of necessity, get cold shivers down his spinal column when he sees one of God's fairest creatures walking in the gutter and bearing the legend "Votes for Women."

To the Voters of Greensboro:
I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Mayor and Commissioner of Public Accounts and Finances and if elected to this office, it will be my purpose to keep myself fully informed upon all matters that affect the welfare of the city and I will exercise my best judgment and discharge with fidelity the duties of said office.
Respectfully,
S. H. BOYD.

The man sneers and starts talking. Contempt gets into his mind, and stays there, and so he treats all womanhood alike.

That may be wrong. Very likely it is. But the growing discourtesy to woman is not so much to be attributed to her being the man's rival—he can admire her for that and want her aid because of it—it is just because a few of them bring contempt upon the whole sex.

Rev. R. M. Williams Will Re-main in Greensboro

Sunday morning at the Church of the Covenant the pastor, Rev. R. Murphy Williams, announced that he had decided to decline the call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Lumberton. This announcement brought smiles to the faces of the members of the congregation, who had feared that Mr. Williams might accept the call. After the service nearly every member of the congregation remained to shake the minister's hand and to express their joy at his decision.

The Sunday school of this church has been reorganized by the election of R. J. Mebane as superintendent, succeeding J. G. Foushee, resigned. The prospects for a bigger and more active school are quite bright, as the leaders have determined to do everything they possibly can to increase the attendance and the efficiency of the work.

Cases in Municipal Court Monday

In Municipal court yesterday morning Charlie Holt was arraigned on the charge of retailing, being found guilty. Judge Eure sentenced him to five months on the county roads. Joe Holt was convicted on the charge of giving away cocaine. Judge Eure bound him over to court in a bond of $100.

George Hicks was convicted on the charge of drunkenness and sentenced to the roads for a term of 30 days. In a former case, in which judgment had been suspended on good behavior, prayer for judgment was asked for and an additional 15 days was tacked on to the former road sentence.

Jack Moore was convicted on the charge of carrying a razor and a pistol and fined $20 and costs.

make them. The fact, he declares, that the average retail decline on a group of leading articles is not in proportion to the wholesale decline is because his operating expenses have increased and his own needs have augmented. Furthermore, he intimates that he is entitled to make as much as he can.

"True," said one grocer, "ham, bacon and lard are not as low in proportion as live hogs. But you must take two things into consideration. Firstly, the cost of turning live hogs into bacon, ham and lard has increased; secondly, whether it has or not the price of ham, bacon, lard and meat of every other form is fixed by the powers that be, the Beef Trust, and not so much by the law of supply and demand, which is only an invincible argument to the farmer. You say corn and oats have dropped 25 and 30 per cent. respectively, and retail price of cereals has not been lowered. Well, ask the cereal manufacturers why they have not reduced the price on package goods."

It is said that as a result of the recent visit of R. S. Lovett, president of the Harriman Lines, to the Pacific coast, work will be begun within the next month which will result in the completion of a direct railroad line from Portland, Ore., to Los Angeles, Calif.

This is the first big piece of new construction work begun since the announcement was made some time ago that the Harriman lines would spend $75,000,000 within the next five years for new construction, double-tracking and improvements of various kinds.

Embezzlements in banks and financial institutions in 1910 reached $6,262,000, against only $3,840,000 in 1909, an increase of $2,422,000, whereas the total embezzlements of all kinds showed an increase of only $80,000.

SPORTING NOTES FROM COUNTRY'S METROPOLIS

(By James Dockerall.

Special to The Telegram.

New York, April 3.—To the law which makes the owners of race tracks personally liable in criminal actions for betting on the tracks is attributable the fact that this year for the first time in forty years there will be no regularly organized racing on the great race tracks about this city, New York. Belmont Park, one of the most magnificent courses under the sun, the building whereof cost a matter of two and a half millions; beautiful Sheepshead Bay, the home of the Coney Island Jockey Club; Gravesend, Aqueduct, Empire City, Jamaica and Saratoga Association, will not open their gates.

There will be no Carter Handicap, no Excelsior, no Metropolitan, no Brooklyn, no Suburban. The Futurity will be declared off, as will the Lawrence Realization, the Century, the Brooklyn Derby, the Empire City and Saratoga handicaps and the Saratoga cup.

The Jockey Club has made no effort to secure remedial legislation at Albany, but it is understood that up the State Democrats have prepared bills, the object of which is to nullify the most objectionable feature of the last hatch of Governor Hughes laws, and are ready, at what may seem the proper moment, to spring them.

There is an extract from a London paper which ought to be of interest to American breeders of thoroughbreds.

"The demand for English thoroughbred stock in Russia is just now keen and increasing. It was but recently announced that for its Government Stud had been privately purchased for $20,000 from Mr. Nelke's great chestnut Santei horse, Lagos, and now comes the news that William Waugh has sold Bembo to follow in the same direction. Few people have been more extensively concerned in the transfer of wellbred horses and mares to foreign parts than the Master of Kingsclere, who enjoys the confidence of all with whom he comes in business contact, and except for the patrons for whom he trains at Park House, with none more than the many highly-placed personages by whom he was known and appreciated during his experience in Austro-Hungary, whither he has been the means of sending many animals destined for stud service. Not the least successful of his immigrants of late years has been Wombwell, who bids fair to make a great name for himself at Napagedl, in Austria. As for Bembo (1905) he may be safely described as one of the most powerful, bloodlike, and best grown sons of Marco, and at the close of his racing career was sold by Lord Carnarvon to William Waugh for a big sum of money."

John Madden recently shipped his three-year-old colt, Adam Bede to England, insuring him for $35,000.

Adam Bede is a chestnut out of an imported mare of fine pedigree. He was the biggest of the Adam 2-year-olds Thomas Welsh brought to the races last spring for the Newcastle stable and at one time he was supposed to be one of the best. But he struck one of his legs in his maiden race at Gravesend and no effort was made to get him to the post again.

Last summer at Saratoga at the sale at which Bashti was knocked down to an agent of Harry Payne Whitney for $30,000, Mr. Madden purchased Adam Bede for about $5,000.

The plan to eventually provide the University of Washington with a great stadium similar to the one in use at Harvard probably will go through. The plan was originally suggested by the board of control of the students' association.

Walter Johnson who is considered one of the most famous League pitchers throws out some valuable hints to aspiring ball-players. He says: "I always take things easy during the spring. First, I try to get my arm into shape by light work, before taking any chances with speed. I do not believe much in throwing to bases. I seldom shoot the ball over to first or second unless I have a fair chance of catching the man. Curve balls are not always the most effective. On the contrary, I believe a fast ball straight over the corners invariably proves more effective than the widest curve. Don't try every new kind of a curve you may see used at a professional game. You may become an adept at pitching wide and puzzling curves, but of what use is this if you can't control the ball and get it near enough to the batter to compel him to swing at it? I never use the spitball, for I believe it injures the arm. Neither do I throw a drop, for it is hard to control."

The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Souther, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Howard Gardner.

"Have you any remedy for our overcrowded prisons?"

"Yes—look up the honest men instead of the crooks."—Chicago Post.

PATRIOTS ARE IMPROVING;

HELD GIANTS DOWN WELL

Failed to Score Against New Yorkers, But There is Some Difference in Eleven and Thirty-Four

Despite the fact that a few gusts of snow fell yesterday afternoon a fair-sized crowd went out to Cone Park to see Doyle's Patriots tackle "Muggsy" McGraw's Giants, fresh from the training fields of the south. The local boys showed up to much better advantage than on Saturday and when the curtain descended at the close of the ninth the score stood eleven to nothing.

During the entire game only two errors were marked up against the Patriots, both coming in the eighth inning when Horner dropped a ball in right and Stewart made a wild heave to third to catch a runner. The errors brought in four runs. Wallace twirled for five innings, allowing seven hits. Eldridge twirled the remaining four and he showed up much better than on Saturday. Time and again his curves would puzzle the Giant batsmen and several strike outs were placed to his credit. Four hits were secured off his delivery. Stewart was behind the bat and he caught a number of Giants trying to purloin second. Doak was on third and played a good game. Taken as a whole the game was a good exhibition and the fans were well pleased with the showing made by the Patriots.

For the Giants Teresa started in on the mound and the locals could not get within a mile of his curves. Hindies went out and the boys did no better. Raymond succeeded in the fifth and the hits were secured off him. McGraw twirled the final round to the enjoyment of the spectators. Myers, Schlei and Dowdy were the men behind the bat for the Giants.

One Conductor Helped Back to Work.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect.
